1/2/2024	00007323	Decertified	On January 4, 2024, Eracleo entered into a Voluntary Decertification Agreement under which he acknowledged that it was alleged that 1) he inappropriately accepted gifts from a vulnerable member of his community and he failed to report said gifts to his supervisor; 2) while on duty, he made inappropriate and unwelcome sexual comments to a civilian employee of his police department; and 3) in relation to his work as a School Resource Officer, he improperly communicated with a minor student using a social media application that permitted him to receive, and conceal the receipt of, sexually suggestive material; and he admitted that these allegations would support revoking his law enforcement officer certification.

Date Of Order	Case #	Type	Reason
8/14/2025	00007443	Decertified	On August 14, 2025, the Commission revoked McCall's certification, after a hearing. The Commission found that McCall made numerous harassing, sexual comments to females, primarily ones who worked at the same police department in positions subordinate to him, that he physically touched one female co-worker in a sexually offensive manner, and that he sent numerous offensive and inappropriate social media messages to multiple females, including one juvenile. The Commission found McCall to be unfit for duty as an officer and dangerous to the public, that he has a pattern of unprofessional police conduct, and that he has repeated sustained internal affairs complaints.

Date Of Order	Case #	Type	Reason
2/15/2024	00006808	Suspended	Romeos entered into a Voluntary Suspension Agreement under which he admitted that, on November 19, 2022, he was involved in an off-duty single-vehicle accident in Wakefield, New Hampshire, when he was the sole occupant of his vehicle. While driving, his vehicle left the road, striking a large rock and multiple trees before coming to a stop. As a result of the accident, Wakefield police officers responded to the area. When police officers asked for his identification, Romeos initially provided his Essex Police Department credentials. Additionally, when asked, Romeos inaccurately stated that his relative had been driving and had left the scene before police arrived. Romeos was taken to the hospital, where blood testing revealed that his blood alcohol content was nearly three times the legal limit. Romeos was subsequently found guilty of Reckless Operation of a Vehicle and False Reporting of an Accident, in violation of New Hampshire law. His certification was suspended for a period of 18 months.

Rossi, Cara MPTC ID: 9997-8062 Certification Status: Certified Current Agency: Ashland Police Department

5/22/2024	00007341	Other	The Commission considered allegations that Rossi failed to take sufficient action to investigate an incident reported to her while she was a lieutenant at the Natick Police Department; and that, during the pendency of the preliminary inquiry, Rossi was involved in a verbal argument with a former colleague. The Commission concluded that there was not clear and convincing evidence of a pattern of unprofessional police conduct, and also found that Rossi would not benefit from retraining. The Commission therefore closed this matter without imposing any discipline.

9/25/2025	00008220	Decertified		On September 25, 2025, the Commission revoked Sanchez's certification, after a finding that Sanchez was the driver involved in two hit and run accidents with the same vehicle after having consumed multiple alcoholic drinks and shots in July 2024, while off duty. At the time of the accidents, Sanchez was under the Last Chance Agreement with her employer, and was required to abstain from consuming alcohol, among other requirements. The Commission found Sanchez is not fit for duty as an officer and is dangerous to the public, that she has a pattern of unprofessional police conduct, that she has been suspended by her appointing agency, and that she has repeated sustained internal affairs complaints.
